I. INTRODUCTION

Gender perform pervasive role in society as social and cultural expectations for a certain amount of people's behaves, walks, talks. It is classified in several ways having terms like LGBT community. that includes Gays, Lesbians, bisexuals.

Gay describes people who are physically, romantically, emotionally and /or spiritually attracted to other people of same gender while Lesbians describes women who are predominantly attracted to other womens. It also refers to the emotional, romantic and/or sexual attractions of women to other women's.

LGBTQ is related to people with a sexual orientations that is non heterosexual including Lesbians, gaymen, bisexual people, and asexual people, people who are Transgender or who are intersex.

LGBTQ culture varies widely by geography and the identity.

The history of LGBTQ people dates back to the first recorded instances of same sex love and diverse gender identities and sexualities in culture around the world. The legal rights held by LGBTQ people vary greatly by country ranging from the legal recognition of same sex marriage to the death penalty for homosexuality.

LGBTQ people may face disparities in access to care, targeted public health interventions and the impact of stigma on physical and mental well being. By the 20th century a movement in recognition of Gays and Lesbians was underway abetted by the social climate of feminism and new anthropologism of differences. Substantial evidence also exists for individuals who lived at least part of their lives as a different gender than assigned at birth.

The increasing expansion of a global LGBT rights movement suffered a setback during the 1980s as the gay male community was decimated by the AIDS epidemic demands for compassion. A 2016 LGBT identification and activism was still punishable by death to 10 countries Iran, Iraq, Mauritania, Nigeria, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Somalia, Uganda and Yemen.

II. CONCLUSION

This texts shows massive details and historical evolution/bans on LGBT people like Lesbians, bisexuals and Gays.
